Everything You Never Wanted to Know About Magic

PENTAMAGICA

SYNOPSIS

Christiane Raetsch and Sandra Wulf write a book about young women in the world of magic. At an esoteric workshop they meet three other women and decide to work together on the project, with each woman delving into a special area: shamanism, witchcraft, sexual magic, ritual magic, geomancy - this satirical comedy spares no aspect of the "magical sciences".

A crazy trip through the world of esoteric, a feel-good film about five young women searching for the meaning of life. A mean sideswipe to all hobby esoterics, who go to a workshop on the weekend and explain the world on the next day. But the World of Magic has its own set of laws:

And that is the real Magic of Life.

PRODUCTION NOTE

Director Roland Reber accentuate through a portray of the bizarre world of magic and spells the absurdity of the world we are living in. The young generation has forgotten the basics of life, they got lost in the fun and entertainment jungle of the so called developed civilisation. They lost their roots and are following on the now fashionable obsession with spiritualism. They like the sound of a word and behave immediately like a swami. They read a book today and pretend to teach it tomorrow, without a single sense of its meaning. They just practice spiritualism because it is "in".

PENTAMAGICA was awarded with the SPECIAL AWARD for Montage in Feature Films 2003 at the Int'l Panorama of Film In Thessaloniki / Greece.
